How do we make the education experience the best for our children?

School – the place where we spend a lot of our time as youngsters and the place we make friends and build skills!!

Teachers do a great job of modifying curriculum to best suit students. Here are some other resources that teachers may find helpful, as well as professionals supporting teachers.

How Do I Teach This Kid?

Why we love it ♥

This series of books is designed to share ideas for using visual strategies to teach children with autism. The books provide practical, easy-to-implement ideas for creating work tasks or boxes to be used to teach students to work independently and for an established length of time. They contain classroom and home-tested ideas of addressing skills in six different areas: sorting, matching, reading, writing, mathematics, and motor tasks.
